Director: Marsha Guenzler-Stevens, Ph.D.

The Adele H. Stamp Student Union - Center for Campus Life is the heart of UMD. More than 10,000 students, faculty, staff members, and campus guests visit STAMP daily to take advantage of its services, programs, and facilities. Our mission is to create and sustain a student-centered environment that promotes academic success and personal development; serves as a safe and inviting campus center; and is characterized by a strong commitment to multiculturalism, excellence, and a positive work environment.

STAMP offers lounge and study areas, a variety of information services, recreation and leisure activities, leadership development programs, multicultural involvement and community advocacy programs, arts and entertainment, food and retail outlets (including the official University Book Center), and reservable space for numerous educational events, conferences, and more. The building's total square footage is more than 300,000 square feet.
